Release: I/We make this entry at my own risk. I am aware that I will be riding in the open on grassy areas. I realize that horses are potentially dangerous animals and that simply being around them can cause injury and even death. I/We agree to hold harmless South Wind Stables, owners, lessees, and any officials, volunteers, staff, spectators, and any person connected with the show and barn from liability from any accident/injury. Everyone is urged to use caution and care while attending the show. It shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Show, it's directors, volunteers, and property owners harmless for loss or accident to his/her horse(s) or equipment which may occur. Notice: Under Ohio Law (ORC 2305.321) an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of an equine activity participant that results from inherent risk of an equine activity. Also, as a participant, I will sign an additional release form the day of the show---under 18 must have parent or legal guardian present to sign for them

"Inherent risk of an equine activity" means a danger or condition that is an integral part of an equine activity, including, but not limited to, any of the following: (a) The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death, or loss to persons on or around the equine; (b) The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movement, unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals; (c) Hazards, including, but not limited to, surface or subsurface conditions; (d) A collision with another equine, another animal, a person, or an object; (e) The potential of an equine activity participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death, or loss to the person of the participant or to other persons, including, but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the ability of the participant.
